

World Curries JEAN

Food is universal. I found that one food is conform to this sentence. With meat varies from place to place, has a million variations, that is Curry. If you have chance to enjoy this food in India, in Japan and in Taiwan, you may be surprised that the same food has different taste. If you can sniff the aroma of curry from a distant place, there is no doubt the curry is from India. Because the word curry comes from Tamil that means "sauce". They use many kinds of spices such as turmeric, coriander, and cumin to cook curry. In India, they even use yogurt, milk and coconut milk to increase the aroma. If you go to Japan, you'll taste one of my favorite foods: Japanese curry. The different between Japanese curry and the India's curry is that Japanese curry uses many kinds of fruits and vegetables to replace the coconut milk. By this way, curry can be more healthful. Finally, if you don't have enough money to go to these places to enjoy different kinds of curry, you can come to Taiwan. Restaurants in Taiwan featuring Western or Asian curry are everywhere in Taiwan. You can easy find any kinds of curry in this amazing place. We can see that curry can collocate with rice, and some restaurant think curry with pancake are best match. Curry has thousands way to eat on the one street. In short, curry's popularity in recent decades has spread outward from the Indian sub-continent to figure prominently in international cuisine. Wherever you go in the world, you should be able to find a restaurant where provides you something delicious and different curry.

Instant Noodles JENNY

Who is the partner that can stand beside you when you are hungry at night? We were students do, stay up late to study. When we are hungry, we eat instant noodles to stop our starving. But do you know the history of instant noodles? The first instant noodles was originate from Japan in 1958 named「雞湯拉麵」and the inventor called 安藤百福. He saw that after WW II, poor people in Japan could not eat noodles because they didn't have enough money. Another invention appeared because instant noodles appeared since then, the company which made instant noodles printed the day when the food made on it, and that was also the first company that did it. Instant noodles were the most important Japanese invention since 2000. As of 2008<sup>[update]</sup>, approximately 94 billion servings of instant noodles are eaten worldwide every year. It has become a popular food in many parts of the world, undergoing changes in flavor to fit local tastes. I think that people like to eat instant noodles because the flavors are varied and the flavors can fit the place with different countries. For example; in Mexico, flavors such as lime and chili are popular, often combined with shrimp, and it's available in almost every convenience store in Mexico. And South Africans prefer milder flavors. The most common flavors there are chicken, beef, cheese and shrimp. Because the low cost of instant noodles, it become popular in South Africa's poorer communities. Korean's favorite flavor is peppery tastes. So when we think about peppery flavors, Korea instant noodles will come into our mind immediately. Another reason why I think instant noodles was that it is easy to cook. Even at night, when the store was closed, we can easy get instant noodles from the vending machine and it only takes three minutes to cook. Eating instant noodles is very close to our daily live. This article can let we know more about what we eat and the ingredient that instant noodles has. When you finish this article, next time you eating instant noodles, you will be more understand about it.

Chocolate JERRY

Do you like chocolate enough to know about these? Chocolate is a composite food, and it produced from the seeds of the tropical Theobroma cacao tree. It always regarded as the sweet snacks. But chocolate was not a sweet from the beginning. It originated from Mexico, South America. On 15th century, an explorer found the drink made by cocoa in the Aztec, it actually tasted bitter, its Nahuatl word "xocolātl" meaning "bitter water". He brought this drink back to Spain, added some water and sugar in it, heated it until it melted. He called this sweet drink "chocolate". Then this drink became worldwide popular heretofore. There is a common misunderstanding that chocolate fattening you, that's not exactly correct. Things that fat you are the addition in the chocolate like sugars or milk. In fact, dark chocolate benefits the circulatory system, lowering the risk of getting heart attack, it can even help you to lose your weight. Nowadays, chocolate is associated with "love" for they can both sweet your heart. On the Valentine's Day, girls buy or even make the chocolate for their sweet hearts. Instead of colorful flowers, chocolates that only have black and white become everyone's favorite.

Steamed Bun SHELLY

Steamed bun is my favorite food of breakfast. It is easy to eat at anytime. You can just put this food into an electric pot and steamed about five to ten minutes. And match a cap of milk. And then, a simple breakfast has done. I like to eat steamed bun because it has many ways to eat, I like the steamed bun of craft most. By crafting, steamed bun become elastic. And it smells better than the steamed bun make by machine. Steamed bun is a kind of food make of flour. Steamed bun can be fry and or be steamed. You can eat steamed bun as a snack, breakfast or dinner. You can eat steamed bun without anything, it tastes good by itself. If you like to eat heavy taste, you can clip some food such as meet, vegetable, egg, or other food you want to eat in middle of the steamed bun. Nowadays, there also have lots of flavor of steamed bun. For example, strawberry, chocolate, taro, whole wheat, etc. You can find it in market.

Fu-Jen University CARY

Today I want to talk about a university. Why do I want to introduce this university? Because the proportion of the men to women are very different. My meaning is the boys just occupy the one-over-five rate in this university. By the way it is a university that I want to enter after I graduate from the school. Let me talk about its name. The name of this university is called "Fu-Jen". It is located in Taipei county near Shinjo. This university has many attracted places. First, their building is classic and unusual. Second, there are many literal departments. There is a big stadium there. It is good for holding party or some stately ceremony. The area near the "Fu-Jen" is prosperous. You can buy something good conveniently. It is good for students. The whole city lets me feel bustling and flourishing. Everyone knows my major is information, communication, technology, and management. Because this reason, we always are asked to do something using a pragmatic and realistic way. I want to enjoy the literal atmosphere in this university. I have been there one time. I found that the students in this university have superior quality in literature. They are very kind. Everyone's attitude is good. It let me feel that I can easily expand my friendship. Our university doesn't have a lot of students. It is hard to make friends. I even don't think our university is a mini-society. I want to learn more in this university. As a result of the above-mentioned reasons, I yearn for entering "Fu-Jen" this university.

THE TRUTH OF GRIMM'S FAIRY TALES BLYTHE

In early 19th century, the Brothers Grimm published their first collection of fairy tales which is well-known today as Grimm's Fairy Tales, which had been our bed time stories that lulled us to sleep when we were kids. But do you really think the Grimm's Fairy Tale is as innocent as what we thought? There were some scholars starting to make a research on Grimm's Fairy tales, to see if they were really from folk tales or the historical events. The study shows that Grimm's Fairy Tales was first written for adults. Since in the ancient time, most of the people were illiterate. So they created this entertainment by telling stories to people. In order to catch people's attention, the stories usually contain a lot of bloody and violent plots. Moreover, the scholars had also found an astonishing truth about the Brothers Grimm original intention to start writing the stories. In 1806, Germany was taken over by Napoleon, the Brothers Grimm decided to collect and rewrite the folk tales to educate German people and also to fortify their national-identity. So the Germans could stay together to fight against the government of French First Republic. In fact, there were also other people adapting the fairy tales in order to fortify the national identity of their people. Regardless of their purpose of writing the stories, we must think about the moral that the stories are giving to us. Every fairy tale has something to tell to its readers. However, to distinguish the truth is probably the most important thing to do after reading the fairy tales.

2010 Taipei International Flora Expo. Amy, Cherry

What is the most important thing to represent Taiwan? Taipei 101? No! Mt. Ali? No! The answer is 2010 Taipei International Flora Exposition! What's more, Taipei is the seventh city in Asia to win the honor of hosting the international Flora Exposition. If you are interested in gardening, you will enjoy this exposition. Not only you can see flowers in Taiwan, but also many precious flowers from different countries. Featuring a theme of "Rivers, Flowers, New Horizons," the exposition hosts 14 exhibition halls, each with its own unique style. This exposition also combines with the "green building concept." Pavilion of New Fashion is the one of exhibition halls. It features the "FE EcoARK," which constructed entirely from garbage. Plastic bricks made from 1.5 million recycled PET bottles were used to build EcoARK. The Flora Expo is different from the pasts comparing to the other countries. The expo areas include four park areas which the visitors will experience history, fine arts, high-tech, and various special architectures. Furthermore, it is going to present countless flowers and magnificent plants from around the wide world. Let us enjoy the exposition together, milestone for Taiwan-- the first international-caliber gardening event to be held in Taiwan. You can only appreciate this memorable experience from November 6, 2010 to April 25, 2011 in Taipei. It's our honor! Are you ready to join? Don't just sit there eating your chips, let's take our moves together!
